Notice to Silverware Users

A peddler of silver plated ware working the residence districts of our city has for several months been attempting to sell to the people of Salt Lake certain sets of Wm. Rogers plated ware, consisting of 6 knives, 6 forks, 6 tea spoons, 6 table spoons, 1 sugar spoon and 1 butter knife, at prices ranging from $12 to $20 a set, according to the generosity of the victim.

In many instances this "peddler" has represented himself as Leyson's agent, and in many more instances has assured the buyer that Leyson would charge much more for the same goods.

We have no agent, and the peddler is a deceiver regarding the price, and to show the public how great a swindler he is, we offer for sale fifty (50) sets of this Wm. Rogers silver as described, enclosed in a well-made wooden chest complete for $7.50 a set.

The same goods can always be bought cheaper at Leyson's, and if one seems to pay more there, it means the ware is better.
